

Dennis Sanders, Cousin Earl, and Burl Sanders are among those bringing their down-home country gospel music to the Okeechobee Community Theatre stage in Smoke on the Mountain. Performers left to right are: Daniel Womble, Ralph Baker and Ron Hayes.

COMING SOON TO THE

The Okeechobee
Community Theatre

“Smoke on the Mountain” is an audience pleaser!

It’s the Sanders Family’s first night back on the gospel circuit in five years, and nothing is going as planned. To start things off, they’ve turned over their bus on the way to the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, and they’re late for their concert.

One thing is for sure, however. You can count on a wonderful evening of country gospel pickin’ and singin’ that will have your toes tappin’, and may even have you singin’ along.

It’s a return engagement of the OCT’s most popular show ever, and almost all of the original cast is back to reprise their roles. Performances are November 4, 5, 11 and 12. See the tickets page of this website to see how you can reserve your seat!

Presented through special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

A cast of 25 prepares for “Christmas On the Air”

There’s a sack full of comedy, a song book full of music, and more Christmas spirit than Charles Dickens ever imagined, in this new holiday show that will get the season off to just the right start. And through it all, nothing gets in the way of the true message of Christmas.

Twenty-five performers will pull out all the stops to make sure you’re entertained with a host of your favorite carols and songs, and some unexpected twists and surprises.

One weekend only: December 2 & 3 at 8:00, with a 2:00 matinee on the 3rd. Get your tickets now. Details on ticket sales are on the tickets page of this website.

An original Okeechobee Community Theatre Production

okeecommunitytheatre.com